GHS's art program is very strong and the instructor continues to add and change her curriculum to meet the needs of the students by offering beginning classes that expose the students to different formats, pottery courses, jewelry course, and advanced art courses along with exposing the students to any exhibits and experiences offered in the local, university, and four-state art scene. This varies by year. Students at GHS also get opportunities for many other artistic and cultural experiences through excursions or other types of activities. The following are examples of

	6. Sufficient training or preparation for advanced training in either academic or vocational fields so as to enable each child to choose and pursue life work intelligently.	Yes	USD 248 has greatly advanced the exposure of their students to jobs and careers. As students begin to develop their Individual Plans of Study at the elementary level, each student starts taking interest inventories to help match their strengths, weaknesses and interests to potential careers. From guided tours of businesses, career days and job shadows, USD 248 students have multiple opportunities to be exposed to potential careers and colleges. The district has focused on job and career exposure along with financial literacy in an effort to prepare the students for post-high school endeavors, whether their focus is the work world or continuing education through technical training or university. To help students expand their knowledge the following programs or activities have been offered or added: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Job Shadowing-All GHS students are required to perform a job shadow in both their Junior and Senior year. •High School Mentors to the Elementary-In the past two years GHS has implemented an Educational Career Pathway that allowed for High School students to gain experience working with students in the classroom setting. •Technical and Career Services-USD 248 offers eight potential Career and Technical Education classes in its daily offerings. These pathways include: •Vocational Programs- Over the years, Girard High School has developed relationships with several regional community college vocational programs in an effort to better prepare our students for the workforce after high school. Students attend these programs as part of the school day and transportation is provided by the school. GHS has students enrolled in and attending the following programs: Auto Body Restoration, Automotive Technology, Cosmetology, Culinary, Heat and Air (HVAC), Construction Technology and Welding. •Dual Credit-Many concurrent enrollment classes are offered at GHS. With partnerships between Pittsburg State and Fort School Community College GHS students have the ability to earn up to 36 college hours by the completion of graduation. Classes included in this program are as follows: American Government (FSCC), Microeconomics (FSCC), General Literature (PSU) College Algebra (PSU), Elementary Statistics (PSU), Performance Appreciation (PSU), Speech Communication (PSU), English Composition (two semesters; PSU), and American History (PSU). •Mock Interviews- Interview skills have become a focus of GHS in the past few years. Starting in a student's freshmen year with professional emails, phone calls and letters. This process ultimately culminates in the students senior year as they are required to complete a face to face mock interview for their senior English class. A resume, professional attire and interview decorum are all part of this graded process.

SECTION 9: Other Data			Notes
a.	Based on the building leadership team's analysis, what are the barriers your school faces with non-assessment related issues?

1. Can these be achieved with additional resources?	Additional funds would help employ additional certified people to help in these areas. Schools need more support. Teachers alone can not fix issues that many students have. Students who come to school with mental health issues need extra support from mental health professionals. Teachers can not successfully teach a student who's needs are not being met at home. DCF and KVC need to step up and do their job to make sure parents are taking care of their child's needs. Too many times this year, we have contacted DCF or KVC with legitment claims and it appears that nothing is getting done. Additional funds for in school programs are needed to support students needs.
2. Why or why not?
b. Additional building unique items:
